BIOGRAPHY

Dr. Paul Drouin

A Canadian M.D. with more than twenty years' experience in private practice as a family doctor, Dr. Drouin has explored and successfully integrated aspects of alternative natural healing practices and evaluation techniques with conventional medicine to provide the best outcome for his patients, dedicating his life to the promotion of natural health, the prevention of disease, and to bringing a greater depth and understanding to Creative Integrative Medicine.

Dr. Paul Drouin, M.D., Homeopath, Acupuncturist, Doctor of Natural Medicine and Professor of Integrative Medicine, founded Quantum University in 2002.

Dr. Drouin devoted more than twenty years to private practice as a medical doctor in Canada, exploring both traditional and alternative methods to further his knowledge of curative, preventive, and integrative medicine.

In the book, Creative Integrative Medicine, Dr. Paul states: "My objective in creating Quantum University was to put together the missing pieces of the health puzzle into a coherent and practical multidimensional model of Integrative Medicine."
